December 2006

Dear Jam Club readers,

It's getting close to that wonderful and exciting time of year again - Christmas!

The Jam Club is going to present a NATIVITY PLAY this year and if you would like to take part please come along to our next Jam Club on Sunday 3rd December at 9:15am, in the Benefice Hall, Wickhambrook. We'll be able to decide who will play which part and to have a first go at acting out the play.

There will also be the TOY SERVICE on the 3rd December. This is when we bring a wrapped toy for a child along to the church service during

Jam Club The toys are placed by the altar and after the service they are taken to the Social Services in Bury St Edmunds, who give them to local boys and girls who may not get a present from anyone else.

If you would like to bring a toy, then wrap it up in Christmas paper and put a label on it saying if the toy is for a boy or a girl and also the age of the child the toy is meant for.

The NATIVITY PLAY will be held on Thursday 21st December at 7pm during the Carol Service at

Wickhambrook Church. The play will tell the story of the first Christmas and we will be able to sing lots of Carols too! Put the date in your diary and get your relatives and friends to come along too so they can take part in this lovely Christmas event.

If you are going to be in the play, there will be an extra rehearsal on the afternoon of the 21st December at 2pm. This will be when we can get our costumes ready and brush up on our lines and acting before the evening!

We hope you can come along to our next Jam Club and take part in the Nativity play too, but most of all, we wish you and your families a joyful Advent and Christmas.

A HAPPY CHRISTMAS TO ALL OUR
Jam Club
READERS
